With Contract Man, Geoff Marshall and The Mail Order Cowboys showcase a tight set of old-school country tunes that are simultaneously timeless and current, and translate immediately to modern life.

Recorded in 2016, the 10-track Contract Man album draws on Marshall's wry sense of humour and the band's abundant musical chops in equal measure. From smoky hard time songs like 'Disaster,' to whimsical offerings like 'Hank Williams Hanky,' through classic sounding tracks such as 'It's Wrong For Me To Love You (Like I do),' any listener with a pulse will find their own struggles reflected in these songs immediately.

With their signature brand of homemade honky-tonk, Geoff Marshall and the Mail Order Cowboys have always received great crowd reaction from their live shows, and the songs on Contract Man will undoubtedly do the same.
